

7 Tips to Develop Reading Habit in Children

Myschoolz

All kids love stories.

Every child is a reader.

Just keep one expectation from children that they enjoy reading.

Some kids like to read the whole story as soon as possible.

Some kids like to immerse themselves in the story.

Don't be judgemental about speed.

Read to them.

Read for yourself.

Do reading as family time.

Read. And kids will follow you.

Get age-compatible books.

Get books not compatible with their ages.

Just have lots of books without any restriction of genre and age.

Give another book as a reward for reading.

Still better, don't build a reward system for reading books.

Let the joy of reading be the REWARD.

Help in selecting the book only if asked so.

Don't get inspired/intimidated by other kids' reading stats.

Let kids explore and discover their own interests.

Screens are dangerous. They take away time and concentration.

Learning videos are very risky.
They take away IMAGINATION.

Reduce screen time and subscribe to monthly magazines.
